Happy New Year, Zontians!

I hope everyone made it through their fabulous holiday season! It is a new year and we have our Fashion Show coming up on April 13, and our Zonta Spring Workshop is on April 6 in Madison. I hope everyone can make one or both events.

I would love to try something new as we all have reflected on 2018. I want to hear about: What was the lesson you learned in 2018 (personally or professionally)? I will be at the meeting at 5:30 PM and I would love to hear your answers.

I hope to see you at the January meeting.

Thank you,

Maria Bellmann

Here we are in 2019 and our Fashion Show event, “Still Fashionable After 100 Years: Empowering Women & Girls,” is just around the corner in April.

As a reminder, our vendor is Chico's of Brookfield, and the event will take place at the Milwaukee Marriott West. The event cost will remain at $60 per attendee. This year's menu will be a salad made of baby greens, spinach, strawberries, mandarin oranges, candied pecans, bell peppers and feta cheese with choice of salmon or chicken on top, or without either for the vegetarian; we will have flourless chocolate torte for dessert.

This event is the primary fundraiser for the grants and scholarships we award each year. (For the list of like-minded organizations being awarded grants at this year's Fashion Show, see the following page.)

Invitations for the Fashion Show will be coming out soon and we ask that EACH member please try and fill a table with guests. In addition, Chris Todd and Joann Commodore are contacting the business sponsors which were identified at our club meeting. Should you have any additional potential business sponsors, please let them know.

Also, if you have any silent auction or raffle items, please get them to Pam Knackert. Our guests love experiences and dining, so if you have connections for a fun experience or restaurant gift card, please check and see if they would be willing to donate toward our event.

Karen Smith and Deb Koller will begin collecting monies for the wine pull at our January meeting. We ask that each member contribute at least $20 to the wine pull funds.

Last but not least, we will soon be requesting your volunteer support for the day of the event. Give some thought in advance to where you would like to help out, whether cashiering the event, selling raffle tickets, event setup, etc. We will have many opportunities and it is a fabulous time of fellowship with our club.

Many thanks to the committee and our club for making this an amazing event!

– Karen Smith & Lynne Oehlke

The Young Women in Public Affairs Award is a Zonta International program funded by contributions to the Zonta International Foundation. Zonta International is a leading global organization of professionals empowering women worldwide through service and advocacy.

Continuing its long-term partnership with UNFPA to advance the rights of women and girls, Zonta International has become the first private sector donor to the UNFPA-UNICEF Global Program to Accelerate Action to End Child Marriage.

Zonta has worked with UNFPA on child marriage since 2014, with a collaboration in Niger that worked to improve the health of adolescent girls, protect them from violence, and ensure that they can access education and female mentors. Zonta supported UNFPA's advocacy to raise the country's legal age of marriage to 18 and its efforts to reach girls at risk in the most remote communities.

Zonta's $2 million commitment (including $800,000 to UNFPA) will expand the program's reach and help accelerate its impact.

Since 2016, the program has been working in 12 countries (including India) with high rates of child marriage, across three regions, to deliver health, education, protection and support services for adolescent girls who are at risk of child marriage or already married. The program puts a great emphasis on engaging communities to change social norms that perpetuate the practice, while ensuring that systems, laws and policies protect and promote girls' rights.

Suggested Reading: "The Storyteller's Secret," a novel by Sejal Badani

"Nothing prepares Jaya, a New York journalist, for the heartbreak of her third miscarriage and the slow unraveling of her marriage in its wake. Desperate to assuage her deep anguish, she decides to go to India to uncover answers to her family's past.

Intoxicated by the sights, smells, and sounds she experiences, Jaya becomes an eager student of the culture. But it is Ravi—her grandmother's former servant and trusted confidant—who reveals the resilience, struggles, secret love, and tragic fall of Jaya's pioneering grandmother during the British occupation. Through her courageous grandmother's arrestingly romantic and heart-wrenching story, Jaya discovers the legacy bequeathed to her and a strength that, until now, she never knew was possible."

Sejal Badani, a former attorney, left the law to pursue writing full time. She is an Amazon Charts and Wall Street Journal bestselling author, Goodreads Fiction Award Finalist and ABC/DISNEY Writing Fellowship Finalist. When not writing, she loves reading and traveling. Bruce Springsteen, Beyoncé, and Ed Sheeran are always playing in the background.

One of Ms. Badani's favorite sayings is, "Home is not a place or a lifestyle, but the state of your heart and all the people who take their place in it."

The UNFPA-UNICEF Joint Program to Accelerate Action to End Child Marriage provides services and support for adolescent girls and also engages communities to change social norms that perpetuate the practice.
